

17th International Fashion Conferences

---

Blockchain: Can it help the world of design?

Saturday, the 29th of avril 2017, 12am / Villa Noailles, Tente des Rencontres

Frédéric Galinier / moderator

At 44, Frédéric Galinier is holder of a Bachelor in law and a Master in media Law from the University of Paris II Panthéon-Assas, in addition to a Master in Law and written press Management from Rennes Political Studies Institute. Having been a legal expert at the Paris Opera, Frédéric Galinier then joined the Intellectual Property department at Hermès where he stayed for four years. Here he had the opportunity to assist of the Federation française de la Couture's Legal Commission. Lastly, for over eight years, he has been Legal Counsel Manager at Prisma Media. Frédéric Galinier is, since November 2016, Director of Legal, Social and Institutional Affairs of the Fédération de la Couture, du Prêt-à-Porter des Couturiers et des Créateurs de Mode.

Laurent Carrié / speaker

Laurent Carrié is a member of the Paris Bar since 1994. He is a partner of Deprez Guignot and Associés (DDG) since 2000 and Managing Partner since 2014.

Laurent Carrié specializes in Employment and Labour (advice, litigation, negotiation and mediation). He devotes an important part of his activity to the questions of Employment and Labour law in connection with IP/IT, Personal Data, Digital Tools, the Rights on Image, etc.

He has published various articles, in particular on The Royalties of the Rights on Image, The Models Agency Market Liberalization, The Image and Name of the Creators, The Participants to the Reality Shows, The Umbrella Companies, The Moral Harassment, etc. .

He is co-founder with his partners Vincent Fauchoux and Grégoire Guignot of a start-up that will propose a service to protect the IP and based on the the blockchain technology.

He is also co-founder of the production company Colbert Entertainment Ltd based in London, which produces the musical theatre The Braille Legacy, currently at the Charing Cross Theater (London).

Nicolas Martin /speaker

Nicolas Martin is Deputy General Counsel of Hermes International, the French high fashion luxury goods manufacturer. He has a strong expertise in both Intellectual Property Rights and Business Law with 20 years of experience in private practice (Marval, O'Farrel & Mairal) and as in-house counsel (Polo Ralph Lauren & Hermès International) in France and abroad (Spain, Argentina and Switzerland).

He is graduated in Business Law (master and postgraduate) from the University of Lyon III in France. He is the co-author (with Dr. Miguel O'Farrell) of the article « Revalidation Patents and the Unilever case » published in the International Review of Intellectual Property and Copyright Law N° 2/2003.

With the participation of Matthias Ganem, student, and Noémie Balmat, Editor-in-Chief, clausette.cc